CHANTAL COADY, TASTE DETECTIVE

17 JUNE 2008, 6.30PM FOR 7.00PM TO 8.30PM

THE ARTS CLUB, 40 DOVER STREET, LONDON, W1S 4NP

£25 PER PERSON

For the very first time, the Academy presents an open event to promote fine chocolate and the Academy's goals and of course to taste some great chocolate.

The Academy has been working away for several years to establish an organisation that can represent UK chocolate professionals and fight for recognition of the best in chocolate.

Now in this first of a series of events, the Academy invites potential members and friends to join us for an evening at The Arts Club. This is a great opportunity to meet the existing members, network with fellow enthusiasts and professionals and find out what the Academy is all about.

Our featured speaker will be Chantal Coady, currently celebrating 25 years of Rococo. Chantal is renowned for her detective-like 'nose' and will be taking us through a tutored tasting of some of her favourite chocolate, as well as giving us an insight into how Rococo came into being and how the business has grown and remained so successful over the years.

The other chocolatier members of the Academy - William Curley, Bill McCarrick and Paul Young - will also be presenting their products for you to try, or you can sample a range of bean to bar chocolate at the Seventypercent.com table. There will be plenty of opportunity after Chantal's talk to mingle and chat with Academy members.
